the New York Yacht Club. What brought the Whitefin here? It was a friendly visit to the Brownell Boat Works people who launched her under heavy odds in Rockport Harbor, Maine. When Linda and Tom Brownell greeted owner Phil Long and the Whitefin crew it was with a box full of T-shirts, exclaiming across the chest "We were goosed by the Brownell Boat Works". This refers back to one of Maine's more famous modern launchings following a two mile obstacle course over tortuous 16 foot wide winding roads in late April of this year. Tom Brownell was quoted as saying it was "like moving a piano down a very winding flight of stairs". The route was complicated by a ½ mile detour to spare a neighbor's tree.

The 90 foot vessel with a 21 foot beam, drawing 10½ feet, was built on a tennis court of the Long estate on the shore of Penobscot Bay between Camden and Rockport, Maine. The vessel of 125,000 pounds displacement had been built on her own cradle and covered with a steel building so that work could proceed through the rugged Maine coastal winters. The Brownell crew had to remove one wall of the boatshop before the Whitefin could be snaked out and rolled across the lawn of the estate on a temporary roadbed of heavy timbers. The "Galloping Goose", so familiar in Mattapoisett, drew the load forward and two tractor trailers brought up the rear to ease the heavy passage downhill. The David Brownell designed hydraulic launcher was tilted up or down as obstacles were encountered to snake the glistening hull through without scratching the gleaming epoxy saturated finish. It took 9 hours to move to the Rockport launching site where the twenty-five ton lead keel was bolted on, the rudder was installed and the 136 foot mast, shipped from England, was stepped.

The boat is cold molded and epoxy saturated. Woods from all over the world were used in various locations and gleam with care and new finish. The hull encloses a main salon, 5 staterooms, crew quarters, four baths and elaborate galley and was designed by Bruce King.

The entire ship's company was treated to a Mattapoisett cookout at a tent on the Todd property as the Brownells introduced them to a good cross section of Mattapoisett residents and some local hospitality.

The Whitefin left for Nantucket on Wednesday morning. The owner is reported to be hoping to try her wings against his former yacht, the White Hawk, which last year averaged 16 knots in one 8 hour run. It is heavier but with approximately the same area of sail. Plans are to sail around the world beginning this Fall with a crew of twenty.

budget, Mattapoisett Selectmen will ask the town to appropriate a suitable amount at the special town meeting.

Present at last week's meeting was William Keavy, Mattapoisett's representative to the Old Colony Voke School Committee. He admitted there has been "a lot of misinformation concerning the Chapter 70 monies". He added that "no funds were budgeted this year for teacher contract negotiations".

Chairman John DeCosta explained "in the past, Chapter 70 monies had gone directly to the towns". This year the regional school district serves as a pass-through for the monies -- then it goes to each member town (Acushnet, Mattapoisett, Rochester and Carver). Mattapoisett will be receiving $71,479 in Chapter 70 funds and both the Selectmen and Mattapoisett's Old Colony Voke School committee members agreed about $8,000 or $9,000 should be returned to the school to "help with the future teacher contract negotiations budget item". If each of the four towns gives a similar amount this would be sufficient for this budget item, said DeCosta. According to Proposition 2½, after the budget is set, towns may allocate Chapter 70 monies for this purpose. DeCosta noted all the member towns do not feel as Mattapoisett does. If a 2/3 vote (three of the four member towns) is not carried, then a town can vote a supplementary budget for future contract negotiation purposes.

Selectman James Huntoon commented, "Old Colony Voke is a good school; it gives a good education and has kept a tight budget and it deserves our support. We can vote what we consider a reasonable amount at a special town meeting, if necessary."

Chairman DeCosta explained plans include sandblasting the outside of the lighthouse, filling in the cracks and applying a special paint. Also, the wire mesh will be removed from the windows and replaced with shatter-proof glass.

Board members agreed the refurbishing will give the lighthouse an aesthetically improved appearance. They also agreed the Coast Guard has been good to the town by keeping the historic landmark in such good repair. A letter of thanks will be sent to the Coast Guard expressing the Board's appreciation for their past work and for their future plans.

RECEIVED WORD from Gary Benzon of the Plymouth County Mosquito Control that the county is now conducting spraying (by truck) every other day until the mosquito population drops.

Aerial spraying will be conducted in the Bayside Meadows area only. Only if the state declares it a public health emergency will the entire town be aerially sprayed, Vincent explained in his letter.

Frank Suzan, Selectman, commented the Plymouth County Mosquito Control has done a super job early in the year and continues to do a good job for the town.

MEETING ON NO PARKING AREAS

Selectmen plan to hold an open meeting to inform residents of the "no parking" areas after they have received input from department heads. The police, fire and highway department heads have been asked to submit their suggestions on parking areas to the Board by August 29.

On a similar matter, Selectmen announced they have received approval from the state to place the following signs:

Brant Beach Avenue: No parking between signs. Sign to be placed on westerly side of Brant Beach Avenue between the southerly boundary of Woodlawn Avenue and the beach.

Ocean View Avenue: No parking between signs. Signs to be placed on the southerly side of Ocean View Avenue at Brant Beach Avenue and easterly boundary of Pinehurst Avenue.

Executive secretary Carol Adams explained a previous request for speed zones on Park Street have been denied by the state D.P.W. The state cited the reason that the street is too short for speed zone signs to be necessary.

Selectmen noted that being a rural residence area the speed zone is automatically set at 30 miles per hour. Selectmen asked Carol to check with the state to see if the town can post 30 M.P.H. signs on Park Street.

LETTER ON LIGHTS AT WHARF

Selectmen received a letter of complaint from Therese McBrien regarding the Board's decision to install sodium lights at the town wharf.

Ms. McBrien wrote that she felt the lights would be too bright and spoil her view. Selectmen noted hers was the only complaint received on the subject.

Representatives have identification signed by the Board of Assessors; their car make and registration is on file at the Assessors' Office and Police Station. (The Presto is printing their pictures to give you an added measure of security.) The Board of Assessors asks that you please allow the individual to inspect the interior and measure the exterior of your property.

As well as property description, the representatives will be asking the actual or approximate age of the property, confirming recent sales information and recent renovation and remodeling costs.

The Board of Assessors asks that the residents of the community cooperate fully with the company representatives so that this program can be completed as quickly and efficiently as possible.

If you have any questions please call the Assessors' Office at 758-6708.

The computerized system used by the firm allows the Assessors to maintain "Full and Fair Cash Values" for the future without having to conduct a full Tax Equalization Program every few years.

The system uses both property structural information and a detailed Sales Analysis of recent sales within the community to establish the guidelines for the new assessed values.

League of Women Voters

New residents and anyone interested in learning more about the League of Women Voters are invited to attend the Marion-Mattapoisett League's first fall meeting to be held at Mary Anne Hayes' house, 50 Lewis Street, Marion, at 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, September 13th. There will be free baby sitting provided at Mary Anne's, but please telephone her (748-1220) to let her know how many to expect.

The officers of the League will explain how this nationwide organization educates voters on issues as far ranging as national security and/or toxic waste disposal and acid rain.

This year our local League plans to concentrate on the fiscal and educational effects of Proposition 2½ on the Old Rochester Regional School District.

Marion Selectman Joe Zora will address the group and give his views on town government with special emphasis on zoning.

We welcome all - come and bring your friends.

Barbara Newman and Steve Veilleux, Mattapoisett visitors to Quebec, were startled to read the name of Natalie II Mattapoisett on a life ring hanging in a shop in old Quebec City. The shop owners were so rude and hostile that no explanation could be obtained. However, Ned Wood's SAILING DAYS IN MATTAPOISETT lists the Natalie II as owned by H. A. Richards of Mattapoisett Neck from 1959 - How it reached Quebec is unknown.

Al was a Navy veteran of World War II and served on the same ship with Johnny Carson whom he knew well at the time. In the past few years he has been semi-retired and worked only part days but old customers remained faithful and stopped in frequently to spend a few minutes. He was very proud to be and remain an old time barber carrying on a tradition in the shop that has been a barbershop for much of the modern life of the town having started as the shop of Abraham Skidmore.

The Trustees of the Estate of George A. Cowen are providing the facility as a memorial to Mr. Cowen's wife, Annie Maxim Cowen as directed by his will. Through their discretionary powers, the Trustees have chosen to develop a congregate housing concept which addresses social and practical needs of older people beyond basic shelter.

This innovative concept is designed to maintain the independence of each resident and yet provide a sense of community which avoids isolation. Residents will enjoy a secure environment where maintenance and housekeeping assistance is provided as needed. They will be able to share evening meals in a common dining room as well as prepare their own meals in their apartments. Residents will be making many of their own decisions about running the house with the support of Coordinator Karen Greene, employed by the Annie Maxim Home, Inc.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Akins and their sons Danny and Michael will take up residence in the nearby Cowen Homestead.

Elaine Akins will be preparing shared evening meals at 700 North Avenue and Mr. Akins will be responsible for maintenance tasks.

Designed by experienced congregate housing architects, Karobkin Jahan Associates of Cambridge, the 12 unit facility is shaped like an arch; with 6 independent (1) bedroom apartments on each arm; and a common kitchen, dining room, living room, library and laundry room in the center or keystone of the arch. The house is being built by De Loid Associates of New Bedford and should be completed by February 1, 1984.

Eligibility criteria have been established by the Cowen Trustees which conform to the tenets of Mr. Cowen's will. Applicants must presently reside in Rochester or an adjoining town, be 62 years or age or older, able to take care of themselves and have a limited amount of income and assets.

For information and applications, call Karen Greene at 295-5581. Applications will also be available from the Rochester Council on Aging. Rochester residents will be considered first.

Dr. Tilden Honored

Dr. Benjamin Tilden of Marion was presented the Citizens' Award at Marion Grange #339 on August 18th. This award is given by the National Grange for outstanding service to the community.

Dr. Tilden has served the people in Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester, as well as patients in Nursing Homes in Fairhaven and Wareham, for 50 years -- and he still makes house calls!

His father, Dr. Irving Tilden, of Mattapoisett, served as Master of Mattapoisett Grange for several years as well as serving in most of the other offices. His mother, Evelyn, was Chaplain, and very active in Grange work.

One of the highlights of their Grange life came when as Master, Dr. Tilden and his wife were delegates to the National Grange Convention held in Seattle, Washington.

Young Dr. Tilden's romance with Annie Mae, R.N. flourished at the Village Shop on Water Street in Mattapoisett, owned by Mildred and Lem LeBaron.

Despite the inclement weather many friends, some he had ushered into the world, as well as his sister, Mary Erhard of Mattapoisett; his daughter, Nancy of St. Johnsbury, Vermont; son, Thomas and wife, Linda, and family; gathered to honor him. Daughter Joan Snyder was unable to attend.

A karate demonstration by pupils of John Gabriel, who teaches classes at Marion Grange, was very interesting.

Gordon Cudworth of Lakeville, master violinist, entertained with violin solos. We always appreciate his music.

WBSM's well-known Bill Brennan and his banjo had everyone singing the Old Time Songs.

Dorothy Drolet of Marion, who is in demand whenever a happy event takes place, read an original poem about Dr. Tilden and his dedicated life as a doctor.

Marion and surrounding towns are very fortunate in having such a dedicated doctor.

MATTAPOISETT WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

The Mattapoisett Girls' Softball Team won the 1983 Fairhaven Girls' League Championship beating the Fairhaven Varsity Club in two straight games by identical scores of 5 to 4.

Excellent defensive play and timely hitting brought the championship to Mattapoisett. Mattapoisett had eliminated the Fairhaven Mothers' Club 9 to 3 in a semi-final playoff game to earn the right to play the Varsity Club for the championship.

Mattapoisett was led defensively by Kris Wordell's outstanding play at third base and consistent hitting. Also leading the team to victory was Caitlin Hamer who pitched the three playoff victories; Polly Field, Kris Jackivicz, Maureen Flood and Yolanda Dennis played excellent defense and offense in the championship series. OPEN LETTER TO RESIDENTS OF ROCHESTER

I would like to provide a little background on the recent appointment to the Conservation Commission. It is my contention that Selectmen Sol and Walker successfully sandbagged my appointment. Conversations overheard at the Town Hall are the basis for my contention.

Before the appointment was made, I was subjected to undefined charges of conflict of interest, attacks on my integrity, and even speculation on my marital status! However, I was promised I would be interviewed.

The interview was a total farce. Not one question of any substance was asked of me. The other applicant, Mrs. Carolyn Lawrence, was asked only "leading" questions by Selectmen Sol and Walker; such as "Can you type? Then you could serve as secretary!" Mr. Hughes did ask a pertinent question: "Could you estimate the 25,000 board feet which will have to be determined in some cases under the new forestry laws?" Mrs. Lawrence said, "No, but I could learn." I'd like to point out that Forestry is a four year college program, and that I have over twenty years' experience in estimating timber and involvement in the logging industry.

Prior to this appointment, the Conservation Commission had endorsed me to fill their vacancy, stating they needed my expertise in Forestry because of new and stricter state laws. At the meeting for the appointment, three Conservation Commission members publicly stated their endorsement of me. However, Selectmen Sol and Walker totally ignored their previous policy of appointing applicants endorsed by the group they were seeking to serve on and voted in Mrs. Lawrence.

I feel these "punishing" tactics are a disservice to the community. I would like to urge all town residents to attend these Monday night Selectmen's meetings and observe what goes on firsthand.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

The early church had no Bibles, no seminaries, no printing presses, no literature, no educational institutions, no radio, no television, no automobiles, no airplanes, and yet within one generation the gospel had been spread to most of the known world. This was done by the power of The Holy Spirit.

Today with the stupendous methods of communication the Holy Spirit is being neglected. We are trying to do things on our own strength - but we are failing. Millions of Americans are worshipping at the shrines of secularism, materialism, and sinful pleasure. The hour is getting late - the world is rushing madly on its way toward destruction. The only hope for a war-mad world is THE GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST.

The only feet that Christ has are your feet. The only hands He has are your hands. The only tongue He has is your tongue. Use every talent, facility, and method possible to win the world back to

4th Hiller Regatta

The fourth Hiller Family Regatta was held at Ira Hiller's Wharf, Mattapoisett, on Sunday, August 21st, after a series of trial races which provided the skippers and the Race Committee with some very valuable experience. The result was improved expertise and management.

The program for this year's regatta surpassed all previous ones, what with four major classes of boats contending. To the old reliables (the Beverly Dinghies belonging to Emerson, Eldredge and Nelson) were added the Lasers, the Sunfish and the Handicap Classes, and these were sailed by the competing yachtsmen on a rotating basis. This is according to family tradition of providing equal opportunity for all.

A highlight of the Regatta was the performance of the younger generations. These far outdistanced their elders. The star of the youngest group was R.K. Hiller who tied for first place in the Laser Class and would have done better except for some bad luck. Another feature was the debut of young Scott Lorraine who attempted to enter a big-time regatta with his home-built Wind Surfer. In the opinion of the appreciative veteran skippers, these developments augur well for the future of the Family Regatta.

The attendance was greater than that of previous years, and included the following Hiller families: the Emerson Hillers (Sr. and Jr.), Eldredge Hillers, Nelson Hillers, Ira Hillers, Keith Hillers, the Downers, Lorraines, Genests and the Lewises. Present also were visiting skippers, among whom was Brad Gatenby of Padanaram. The gallery's enthusiasm ran high and reached its peak during the last race which was so hotly contested and so full of vicissitudes.

Because of the broad scope which the Regatta has achieved, it was decided (in consultation between the Race Committee and the Family elders) to divide the scoring into classes: The Overall Winners and the Class Race Winners. The results were:

Overall Winners: First, Buzz Hiller, 18 points; Second, Gordon Downer, 15 points; Third, R.K. Hiller, 14 points.

Class Race Winners: Beverly Class, Buzz Hiller; Laser Class, Buzz and R. K Hiller (tie); Sunfish Class, Fred Lorraine; Handicap Class, Gordon Downer.

Note: The results of the Handicap Class are subject to revision pending a meeting to be held by the Race Committee and its experts. Final adjudication of points will then be made.

The Race Committee was headed by Frank T. Martocci who was ably assisted by Martha Lorraine, the newly elected vice chairwoman.

"No other book of its kind about New Bedford existed until this one," according to New Bedford Five Cents Savings Bank President, Real Breton. "Sponsoring the publication of New Bedford: A Pictorial History gave us the opportunity to fill a need... and pay a lasting tribute to the City and its people. The facts, carefully documented and presented in the book, will belong to the city forever."

That the book was expressly intended "for the people" is evidenced in its opening pages. New Bedford Five Cents Savings Bank pays first respects by dedicating the book "to all the citizens of Greater New Bedford -- past, present and future". Three pages later, U.S. Representative Gerry E. Studds' endorsement of the book cites the city's uniqueness as a by-product of the same quality found in its people.

The pictorial history is offered for sale to the public and because of the book's limited availability, New Bedford Five Assistant Vice President and Marketing Director, Tim Dyer, advises "anyone wanting a copy to purchase his or hers early." A total of only 1,500 copies were printed; each one is individually numbered and signed by the book's two authors.

So that all members of the community will have access to the book, the bank is planning to donate several copies of New Bedford: A Pictorial History to area libraries.

Authors Judith Boss and Joseph D. Thomas are both experienced artists familiar with the Greater New Bedford area. Judith Boss of Newport, Rhode Island, holds a number of educational degrees: a BA in psychology from the University of Western Australia, an MA in philosophy from Dalhousie University in Halifax, Nova Scotia, and a certificate in museology from the Canadian Museums Association. Also to her credit are several previous book publications; two of those include similar anthologies about the history of Newport and Fall River.

Joseph D. Thomas, a New Bedford native, is a graduate of the Art Institute of Boston. He is best recognized as publisher, managing editor, contributing author and photographer of two volumes of a regional anthology entitled Spinner: People and Culture in Southeastern Massachusetts.

New Bedford: A Pictorial History was published by the Donning Company Publishers of Norfolk, Virginia. The book will be sold to the public for $23.95 per copy; its retail value is estimated at $45. Again, anyone interested in owning a copy is urged to buy one soon. Books may be purchased at any one of the ten New Bedford Five Cents Savings Bank locations during regular business hours.

BIRD WALK

The Lloyd Center for Environmental Studies, 430 Potomska Road, South Dartmouth, continues its once-a-month series of bird walks on Sunday, September 4th, at 9 a.m.

Regularly scheduled bird walks to a variety of habitats provide interested beginners with the opportunity to learn introductory field identification, and more practiced bird-watchers to note seasonal changes in bird populations, various birds' food resources, requirements for cover, and adaptations to respective habitats.

Because the Lloyd Center has been given permission to use nearby privately-owned properties for educational purposes, groups are allowed access to several ecosystems in the region which, because of limited use, provide havens for resident and migrating birds.

Weekly walks on a wide range of topics are open to the public and are free of charge。 Please call the Center at 990-0505 to register for a walk.

"Same Time Next Year"

THEATRE ONE PRODUCTIONS

"Same Time, Next Year" is about a man and a woman who are married, but not to each other, who conduct a clandestine love affair that spans a quarter of a century. Doris and George, to be played by Marnie DeMarsh and Richard DeLongchamps, share a single weekend annually, change considerably through the years, but never tire of each other.

As attested by its continuing popularity, audiences never seem to tire of watching these two lovers innocently muddle through the complexities of the passing world as they hang onto each other year after year for that one weekend in the same motel room.

This smash comedy hit will be shown at the Nemasket Grange Hall, Middleboro, performed by Theatre One Productions, September 15, 16, 17, 23, 24 and a Sunday Matinee, the 25th, at 2:30 p.m. Evening performances are at 8 p.m. The hall is located on North Main Street (Route 105), Middleboro.
